

Don't miss the City under Microscope in Amsterdam

The City under Microscope in Amsterdam taking place from 20 – 22 September 2017, has a great series of speakers lined up for you.

Come discuss lighting with the urban planners, innovators and designers that are transforming Amsterdam and changing the future of light!

Conferences and site visits in some of the city's most exclusive venues will show you how Amsterdam is piloting innovations in lighting technology and services, as well as how temporary and permanent light art is changing the city. Register for the event before 11 September 2017!
