City of Pessac joins LUCI

The City of Pessac in the urban area of Bordeaux in south-west France has just joined the LUCI network. The municipality aims to manage its 10 000 lighting points in the most optimised manner to fight against light pollution and energy waste.

CITIES IN ACTION

Light sketching in Eindhoven

LUCI members learnt about a new tool, currently being tested in Eindhoven, that aims to help find a balance between conflicting lighting demands (for humans and for nature) in urban green spaces. The City of Eindhoven and designer Philip Ross presented the Light Sketching system and its initial results so far.
